Updates

Mid-Term Week

Mid-Term Week is scheduled for November 13th-17th. During this week, all students will be required to take midterms in each core subject.

These assessments are crucial as they help us determine where students stand and guide us in adjusting our lessons accordingly. Additionally, midterms account for a significant portion of the student's final grade, making it vital for them to approach them seriously.

Your support in encouraging your child to be at school every day is essential to their academic success.
